Message from the President (2024-2025)

Dear Colleagues of CAPA:

Serving as your President this past year has been an incredible honor, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to contribute to CAPA's growth and success. Your unwavering support of our initiatives and leadership has been truly inspiring, and together, we have achieved remarkable milestones.

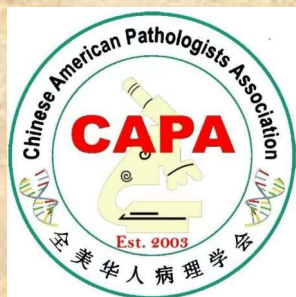

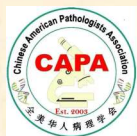

CAPA has made significant strides in advancing its mission to promote excellence in pathology practice, education, and research among Chinese American pathologists while expanding our presence within the broader pathology community. Over the past year, we continued our weekly online seminars, Weekend Subspecialty Courses for Pathologists in China, and Leadership, Professional Development, Wellness, and Friendship Development programs. A major highlight was the successful hosting of our first companion meeting with the German Society of Pathology in Boston on March 22, 2025—a pivotal step in strengthening collaborations with European pathologists. My sincere gratitude goes to Drs. Huihong Xu and Yiting Li and their team for their dedication and hard work in making this event a success.

Our commitment to building global partnerships remains strong. We successfully co-hosted the 9th CAPA-NCC meeting in Taiyuan, China (August 31 – September 1, 2024) and held a companion meeting with the American Society of Cytopathology in Orlando on November 8, 2024. Additionally, in collaboration with USCAP, we hosted an outstanding interactive course in Palm Springs (February 4–7, 2025).

To enhance CAPA's influence and visibility, we produced a seven-minute video showcasing our achievements, ongoing efforts, and vision for the future. A special thanks to Dr. Gloria Zhang for her creativity in bringing this project to life. We also strengthened our financial standing through the generosity of our sponsors—without their support, CAPA's successes would not have been possible.

Membership growth has been another major highlight. Thanks to strategic recruitment efforts, we welcomed 57 lifetime members, 133 regular members, and 112 associate members. A heart felt thanks to Dr. Belinda Sun for her leadership in this initiative. Additionally, we successfully upgraded our website system, thanks to the dedication of Dr. Yanxia Li and her team.

I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to our Board of Directors, led by Dr. Xiaoying Liu, for their invaluable guidance and support. My deepest gratitude also goes to our Executive Committee members—Drs. Shaoxing Chen, Yanjun Hou, Haodong Xu, Hellen Zhang, Linsheng Zhang, and Wei Zhang, along with our education subcommittee chairs, whose commitment and hard work have been the driving force behind our initiatives. Their shared vision, dedication, and creativity have been instrumental in accomplishing our goals.

A heartfelt thank you also to all CAPA members and friends whose personal contributions have significantly strengthened our organization.

As we transition into a new chapter, please join me in warmly welcoming our incoming President, Dr. Zaibo Li, and new Board members—Drs. Tieying Hou, Chunjie Wang, Rong Xia, and Limin Yu. With their leadership, I am confident CAPA will continue to thrive and reach even greater heights.

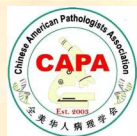

Wishing you all the best,

Larry Wang

MD, PhD

President of CAPA (2024-2025)

Message from the President-Elect (2025-2026)

Dear Esteemed Members of CAPA:

It is with immense gratitude and deep honor that I step into the role of President of CAPA for the year 2025-2026. I extend my heartfelt appreciation to all our CAPA members, our past presidents, especially immediate past president Dr. Larry Wang, and leadership teams for their unwavering commitment and invaluable contributions that have propelled CAPA to new heights. Their dedication has established a strong foundation upon which we will continue to build.

CAPA stands as a beacon of excellence, fostering educational opportunities, professional growth, and collaborative relationships within the pathology community. As we embark on this new chapter, I am inspired by our shared commitment to excellence and the collective strength of our members. Together, we will work to enhance CAPA's impact, ensuring that our association remains a dynamic, inclusive, and forward-thinking organization.

This year, my vision for CAPA is centered around these core principles:

1. Innovation in Education and Professional Development

We will strengthen and expand our existing educational programs, including our annual diagnostic course meeting, online education programs, and other collaborative education activities. We will explore opportunities to integrate emerging technologies such as digital pathology and whole slide imaging (WSI) into our programs, ensuring that our members remain at the forefront of advancements in our discipline. Additionally, we will establish CAPA's digital platform by collaborating with such platform vendors to provide seamless access to educational resources and virtual learning opportunities.

2. Fostering Collaboration and Global Engagement

CAPA has always thrived on collaboration. We will seek to strengthen partnerships with national and international pathology organizations and academic institutions. These relationships will enable us to create joint educational initiatives and research collaborations, that benefit our members and the broader pathology community.

3. Enhancing Member Engagement, Well-Being and Leadership Development

Our members are the heart of CAPA, and our strength lies in our collective voice and active participation. We will continue our current Leadership Professionalism Wellness and Friendship Development program and develop new initiatives to better understand and address member needs including as-associate members/trainees.

Message from the President-Elect (2025-2026)

Through peer support networks, mentoring programs for trainees, leadership training programs, and wellness initiatives, we will cultivate a supportive and enriching environment where every CAPA member feels valued and empowered to contribute.

4. Strengthening CAPA's Financial Foundation

To ensure the long-term sustainability and growth of our association, we will actively seek financial sponsorships from industrial partners. By fostering collaborations with biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies, we aim to secure funding that will enhance our educational programs and member resources. Strengthening CAPA's financial health will enable us to continue providing high-quality opportunities for our members while expanding our impact in the pathology community. As we move forward, I encourage each of you to take an active role in CAPA's journey. Your ideas, expertise, and enthusiasm are invaluable to our continued success. Whether through participation in committees, engagement in educational initiatives, or mentorship of fellow colleagues, every contribution strengthens our association and advances the field of pathology.

I am eager to collaborate with our Executive Committee (Yi Ding, Yanjun Hou, Xiaoying Liu, Larry Wang, Deyin Xing and Helen Zhang), Board of Directors (Guoli Chen, Tieying Hou, Qi-ying Shi, Tong Sun, Chunjie Wang, Rong Xia, Hongbo Yu, Limin Yu), committees/subcommittees, and each of you to ensure that this year is marked by growth, innovation, and a deepened sense of community.

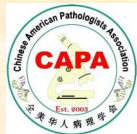

Thank you for entrusting me with this leadership role. I look forward to a year of meaningful progress and shared achievements.

Sincerely,

Zaibo Li

CAPA Board of Directors Annual Report (2024-2025)

Xiaoying Liu

Board secretary: Dr. Xiaoying Liu

Members: Drs. Larry Wang (president), Guoli Chen (Assistant Secretary), Gang Wang, Xiaoying Liu (Secretary), Helen Zhang, Wei Zhang, Hongbo Yu, Tong Sun, Qiuying Shi

This year's CAPA Board of Directors includes five new members, Larry Wang (CAPA president as ex officio), Guoli Chen, Hongbo Yu, Tong Sun, Qiuying Shi, and four members from previous year Gang Wang, Xiaoying Liu, Helen Zhang, and Wei Zhang. The BOD held five meetings on 4/1/2023, 8/6/2023, 11/12/2023, 12/1/2024 and 3/2/2024. BOD members have collaboratively engaged in various projects including committee approvals, international collaborations, award selections, and other CAPA initiatives, functioning effectively as a cohesive group.

The following is a summary of major achievements of the 2024-2025 BOD:

1. CAPA Bylaws was amended - The Amendment 1 to "Article VII" has been reviewed, approved, and adopted by the 2024-2025 CAPA members on January 10, 2025 (see Bylaws). Amendment 1 to Article VII of CAPA bylaws (Approved on 1/10/2025)

Purpose:

To revise the timing of the election for the President-Elect of CAPA.

Timeline:

The election of the President-Elect by the Board of Directors (BOD) shall occur concurrently with the election of BOD and/or the President when occurred by eligible members, as applicable.

Responsibilities of the President-Elect:

The President-Elect shall be a regular member of the Executive Committee (EC) and perform all duties associated with that role. The President-Elect will work closely with the President to assist in fulfilling the President's responsibilities under the leadership of the President of CAPA.

Initial Election (2026 election):

When this amendment takes effect, both the President and President-elect positions will be elected simultaneously, and the roles will be filled accordingly.

Subsequent Elections (starting in the 2027 election):

In subsequent years, only the position of the President-elect shall be vacant, as the President-elect from the previous year shall assume the position of the President. The election shall then be held only for the President-elect.

CAPA Board of Directors Annual Report (2024-2025)

2. Joint BOD transition meeting:

Invited new BOD members (4 new BOD members and the president-elect) to participate in the final BOD meeting of 2025, enabling them to become acquainted with the board's responsibilities and rules. This early exposure is intended to enhance their future effectiveness.

3. International collaborations:

The BOD approved the collaboration with the Germany Society of Pathology; a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) was also approved.

4. National collaborations:

BOD approval on organizing scientific symposiums at the 2025 USCAP Annual Business Meeting. BOD approval on hosting a companion meeting at the 2025 USCAP Annual Meeting. The BOD approved the proposal on proceeding the collaboration between CAPA and CAP for the 11th CAPA Diagnostic Course in 2025 BOD approval on planning a companion meeting with the College of American Pathologists in Florida (2025)

5. Industry sponsors collaboration:

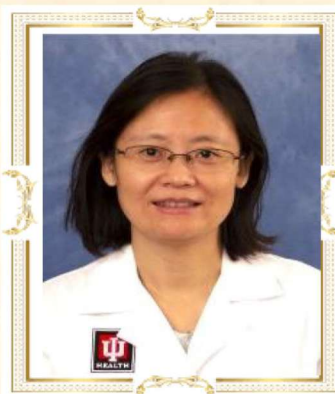

The BOD approved collaborations with several industry sponsors for our annual diagnostic course and business meeting

6. CAPA Election: CAPA election was successfully held in January 2025, resulting in the election of a President- Elect. Four new board members were elected by CAPA members.

7. Recipient of the Distinguished Pathologist Award was selected.

8. CAPA Business Meeting in Boston: Budget for the upcoming 2025 CAPA Business Meeting is approved by BOD.

CAPA Educational Committee Report (2024-2025)

Linsheng Zhang

We thank all the Education Committee chair/co-chairs, subcommittee chairs/co-chairs/members/ advisors, and volunteers for their tremendous support during the year of 2024-2025!

1. The 10th CAPA Annual Diagnostic Course, 10/19/2024 – 10/20/2024 in Las Vegas

The Education Committee successfully organized the 10th Diagnostic Course, which marked the second year of in-person meetings after the COVID pandemic.

The course featured two keynote speakers and 23 faculty members from 12 subspecialties, who delivered outstanding presentations to an audience of 118 attendees in Downtown Las Vegas.

The course had a joint sponsorship with the College of American Pathologists (CAP), which enabled us to provide Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits to our attendees. A total of 71 attendees claimed 623 CMEs from the diagnostic course. The meeting was also a financial success, thanks to the generous support of the sponsors, with a surplus of over $5,000 after the meeting. We would like to extend special thanks to Dr. Yiting Li for her major contribution to the meeting logistics and local support, and to Dr. Wei Zhang for her efforts in connecting with onsite sponsors to secure funding support for this educational activity.

2. Weekend Online Education Meetings from Online Education Subcommittee (please see separate report from Online Education Subcommittee by Dr. Rong Xia)

CAPA Online Education Subcommittee Annual Report (2024-2025)

Rong Xia

Dear CAPA Members,

From March 2024 to March 2025, the CAPA Online Education (OLE) Program has continued its mission of delivering high-quality educational opportunities to our members. We are proud to report substantial accomplishments over the past year, including robust participation in our lecture series and key improvements in program efficiency and sustainability.

Major Educational Activities:

- Weekly Online Education Program We hosted a total of 36 webinars, including 30 CME-accredited lectures and 6 non-CME lectures, attracting an average of over 260 attendees per session, with a cumulative attendance of approximately 8,000 participants.

CAPA Educational Committee Report (2024-2025)

- CME Claiming: For each CME-accredited lecture, 50 to 120 CME credits were claimed, reflecting strong engagement from the pathology community.
- Collaborative Sessions: We supported 8 webinars organized by the Leadership and Career Development Committee. In collaboration with other CAPA subcommittees, we supported 4 educational sessions and 3 training-focused lectures.
- Operational Improvements In 2024, we transitioned our CME accreditation process from CAP Joint Providership to RussoCME, yielding a cost savings of over $2,000 in CME application fees, which contributes to the long-term sustainability of our program.

Acknowledgment of Faculty and Moderators (2024–2025): We extend our heartfelt thanks to all the faculty and moderators who contributed to this year's successful OLE programming.

- Online Education Chair:

Dr. Rong Xia

- Online Education co-Chairs:

Dr. Gang Yang; Dr. Xiaoyan Liao; Dr. Xiaoying Liu

- Trainee Moderators (2023–2024):

Dr. Mengxue Zhang; Dr. Yi Zhu; Dr. Chuan Chen; Dr. Jing Di; Dr. Tengfei Wang; Dr. Xiaomin Zhang; Dr. Guoli Zhang; Dr. Qiong Zhang; Dr. Liping Li

- Trainee Moderators (2024–2025):

Dr. Mengxue Zhang, Dr. Yi Zhu, Dr. Chuan Cheng; Dr. Xiaomin Zhang; Dr. Guoli Zhang; Dr. Qiong Zhang; Dr. Liping Li; Dr. Min Zhang; Dr. Weijie Ma, Dr. Ping Shi; Dr. Tiaosi Xing

- Trainee Service Award: We recognize the dedication and service of our trainee moderators with the CAPA Online Education Trainee Service Award.

We are grateful for the ongoing support of our CAPA members, faculty, and trainees. Your engagement is vital to our shared goal of excellence in education and professional development in pathology. As we look forward to the coming year, we remain committed to expanding the reach, quality, and impact of our online educational offerings.

Sincerely,

CAPA Online Education Subcommittee

CAPA Trainee Committee Annual Report (2024-2025)

Xin He

Introduction:

The objectives for CAPA trainee subcommittee are focused on the professional and educational development of pathology trainees (residents and fellows), as well as advocacy and community engagement. The past year was a great success for trainees and trainee subcommittee, as our group has significantly expanded to near 300 members, not only current trainees, but also those who graduated from trainee programs and now become attendings.

Summary:

The achievements of the past year stand as a testament to the collective expertise, dedication, and collaborative spirit of the committee members. Through their diligent efforts, we have seen:

1. Enhance Educational Opportunities:

- Develop and implement frequent case discussion that covers all essential aspects of pathology.
- Co-organize regular workshops, seminars, and lectures by experts in various subspecialties of pathology.
- Devoted into board review group and gave a lecture on GI pathology.
- From June 2024 to February 2025, we hosted /cohosted 4 lectures through webinar/zoom, focusing on topics that trainees are mostly interested.

March 30 2024, CAPA Trainee Committee and CMG Path Group Match Workshop

June 29 2024, Topic: "Three interesting GI cases, with QA time"

July 27 2024, Topic: "Job market for pathologists"

February 25 2025, Topic: "GPT-Driven AI for Enhanced Pathology"

2. Promote Professional Development:

- I personally joined mentorship programs pairing trainees who are interested in pathology residency, and one of my trainees got matched to a prestigious program.
- Create a platform for trainees to share their information during residency/fellowship training. In this way, we can guide trainees through the processes of certification and job placement.
- Support transition to independent practice and provide resources on practice management and professional ethics.

3. Advocacy and Representation:

- Advocate for the interests of pathology trainees in matters of policy, education, and workforce.
- Ensure that trainees have a voice in the decision-making processes of the wider professional community.

4. Networking and Community Building:

- Build a supportive community for sharing knowledge, experiences, and opportunities.

5. Wellness and Work-Life Balance:

- Encourage a culture of work-life balance within the profession.

CAPA Trainee Committee Annual Report (2024-2025)

Future Directions: Looking ahead, we are inspired by the strong job market for pathologists. In the coming year, the trainee committee will keep hosting seminars with topics on job hunting, training experience and fellowship application. We will invite experienced pathologists as guest speaker to share the most recent update on each topic.

Acknowledgements: We show our deepest appreciation to our CAPA chairman, Dr. Larry Wang. We thank each member of the trainee subcommittee for their invaluable contributions. We are deeply grateful for your service and look forward to what we will accomplish together in the coming year.

CAPA Financial Committee Annual Report (2024-2025)

Yanjun Hou

CAPA's financial status has been stable over the past year. During the year we supported two successful in person conferences (the 10th annual diagnostic course and 2025 annual business meeting at USCAP). We experienced great attendance at both conferences. Compared to 2023-2024, the overall cost of conferences and CME activities decreased, while sponsorship donations increased significantly. We brought in over $70,000 in sponsorship contributions during this period. The total reserve of CAPA is about $359,000 as of March 2025.

CAPA Newsletter Committee Annual Report (2024-2025)

Yu Yang

Chair: Yu Yang

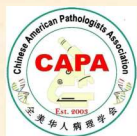

Co-chair: Hong Cheng

Members: Chao Chen, Jing Di, Lina Han, Liping Li, Xin Wang, Qiong Zhang, Xiao Zhou, Larry Wang, Haodong Xu

To strengthen the CAPA brand, engage its members, and enhance its value, the CAPA newsletter consistently highlights internal and external activities, celebrates members' achievements, and fosters a supportive community.

For the 2024-2025 term, the newsletter committee welcomed five junior members: Chao Chen, Jing Di, Lina Han, Xin Wang, and Xiao Zhou. Under the guidance of senior members and with support from current and former CAPA presidents, Larry Wang and Haodong Xu, they have actively contributed to newsletter editing and publication. Collaborating closely with BOD members and committee chairs, they have worked diligently to ensure timely updates on CAPA events and activities. As a result, the committee successfully published four issues this year, all of which are now available online.

Looking ahead to 2025-2026, three current members will be stepping down, while the remaining members will continue their efforts to document CAPA's activities and achievements. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all CAPA members for your ongoing support and cooperation, which makes our work possible.

2025 CAPA Annual Business Meeting in Boston & Awards Ceremony

We hold CAPA 2025 Annual Business Meeting in Boston on March 22nd and 23rd. During the meeting, we celebrated and reviewed the legacy and heritage of CAPA's 22 years and we were delighted to announce and warmly congratulate the recipients of this year's prestigious CAPA awards. These awards recognize outstanding contributions, dedicated service, exceptional research, and exemplary leadership within our pathology community.

We thank all awardees for their hard work, dedication, and exemplary service to the field of pathology. Con-gratulations to all!
