

2022 CAPA Annual Meeting Call for Abstracts for CAPA (GoPath) Best Abstract Award

On behalf of the Chinese American Pathologists Association (CAPA) Award Committee, we are delighted to call for abstracts for 2022 CAPA (GoPath) Best Abstract Award consideration. The best abstract awards (1st, 2nd and 3rd places) including a certificate and check will be presented at the 2022 CAPA Annual Meeting, a satellite meeting at the USCAP Annual Meeting, in the afternoon, March 19th, 2022 in Los Angeles, California, United States.

Guidelines for Abstract Submission:

- 1) The first author of the abstract must be Pathologists-in-training (current residents or fellows) of Chinese ethnicity in North America and must be an active CAPA associate member. Please submit your abstract(s) together with your full name and the name of your residency/fellowship program so that we can verify your current training status.
- 2) All abstracts (word document format, Not PDF file) must have been accepted for presentation at the USCAP 2022 annual meeting and a copy of the USCAP acceptance letter must be submitted along with the abstract.
- 3) Please do not submit any studies that have already been published, accepted for publication, or accepted for presentation in other meetings before the date of submission.
- 4) Submission and Deadline: Please use the submission template in the next page of this announcement to submit your abstracts to the Co-chair of CAPA Award Committee Dr. Qiusheng Si at qiusheng.si@mounsinai.org and CC Xuchen Zhang at xuchen.zhang@yale.edu before November 26th, 2021.
- 5) Notification: The abstracts will be reviewed by the CAPA Award Committee (see below) blinded to the information of authors and institutions. The decisions will be sent out on or before January 15th, 2021.
- 6) Abstract presentation: please see USCAP presentation requirements

If you are not a CAPA associate member, please register with CAPA website to become an active associate member with no charge: <https://www.capa-ht.org/join-us/registration>. Follow instructions to submit membership application.
